Use Explora to find more articles on your topic

Go to Library in iLearn

Click on Database

Click on EBSCO HOST

JSTOR, EBSCOHost and others

Make note of the Username & Password

NSW residents can sign up for a library card and use the wonderful range of eResources provided by the State Library. We recommend this service for all Senior Students.

Visit for private study, use of resources, and to see exhibitions of interest to everyone.

Macquarie St, Sydney. Click HERE for info about opening hours.

WORLDBOOK ONLINE

ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

EBSCOHOST

Free access to a huge range of newspaper and journal articles.

The Australia NZ Reference Centre combines Australian magazines, newspapers, newspapers and reference books to create the largest collection of newspapers and reference books of its kind in the region. The database includes leading Australian and New Zealand periodicals and international periodicals in full text, full-text reference books, over 60,000 full-text biographies, and an image collection of over 34,000 photos, maps and flags.

Access our eResources such as JSTOR, EBSCOHost and other specialist databases

Resources you need for assignments
Click on explora Secondary Schools

This is the explora search page

Search using words in this box

You can click on one of the topics
Start typing in your search word ….. e.g. Opium.
Search hints will appear in the dropdown.
Click on the titles in blue to read the articles.

1. Opium War (1839): The Opium Trade.
   By: Anderson, Tim. Opium War (1839), 8/1/2017, p. 2, 1p., Reading Level (Lexile): 1300
   The article chronicles China's opium trade, which led to the First Opium War between China and Great Britain. Before the British East India Company began smuggling opium into China, the drug was...
   Subjects: OPIUM WAR; China, 1840-1842; DRUG TRAFFIC; CHINA; FOREIGN RELATIONS; 1844-1912; GREAT BRITAIN; FOREIGN RELATIONS; 1837-1991; EAST INDIA CO.; SMUGGLING
   HTML Full Text

2. Opium War (1839): The Treaty of Nanking.
   By: Anderson, Tim. Opium War (1839), 8/1/2017, p. 3, 1p., Reading Level (Lexile): 1100
   The article chronicles the Opium War and the Treaty of Nanking. Chinese trade commissioner Lin Zexu required that British merchant ships agree not to participate in the opium trade. As a result, ...
   Subjects: OPIUM WAR; China, 1840-1842; DRUG TRAFFIC; CHINA; FOREIGN RELATIONS; 1844-1912; GREAT BRITAIN; FOREIGN RELATIONS; 1837-1991; TREATIES; INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
   HTML Full Text

3. Opium War (1839): Background.
   By: Anderson, Tim. Opium War (1839), 8/1/2017, p. 1, 1p., Reading Level (Lexile): 1300
   The article discusses the background of the First Opium War between China and Great Britain, which lasted from 1839 to 1842. The conflict was the result of years of attempts by the British to e...
   Subjects: OPIUM WAR; China, 1840-1842; DRUG TRAFFIC; SMUGGLING; CHINA; FOREIGN RELATIONS; 1844-1912; GREAT BRITAIN; FOREIGN RELATIONS; 1837-1991; DRUG TRAFFIC
   HTML Full Text

4. Analysis: Letter from Special Imperial Commissioner Lin Zexu to Queen Victoria (1839).
   The article presents an analysis of the letter from Special Imperial Commissioner Lin Zexu to Queen Victoria in 1839 improving the government of the British monarch to stop opium trafficking. Lin...
   Subjects: LETTERS; LIN, Zexu; 1785-1856; VICTORIA, Queen of Great Britain, 1819-1901; QING dynasty; China, 1840-1842; OPIUM WAR; CHINA, 1840-1842; OPIUM ABUSE
   HTML Full Text